Stork Hovers Near As Greyhound Bus Reaches Torrance

The stork hovered over a Greyhound bus last Friday forenoon just before a northbound coach reached Torrance. Aboard were Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Fullerton, en route to San Luis Obispo, where Mrs. Fullerton had planned to be with her parents in anticipation of a "blessed event."

As the bus neared Torrance, Mrs. Fullerton became ill. She was removed to the Torrance Memorial Hospital in the Stone & Myers ambulance at the request of her young sailor husband. Meanwhile, the stork flew away without leaving the precious package and the young people stayed over as guests of Mrs. Bessie Myers until Saturday morning, when they left by train for their destination. Fullerton expects to return to his station at San Pedro in a few days. He has been in the Navy about 14 months, he said.

BACONS ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. Fred O. Bacon entertained at their house guest recently Mervin Bacon of Sheridan, Wyo., who leaves soon for South Pacific bases, where he will be employed in naval construction work.

BAKERSFIELD GUESTS

TOOLS?

YES!

You Name It! .. We Got It!

Yes sir... we are proud of our stock of tools! Proud mainly because in this day of scarcity of many needed tools—mechanics, carpenters, plumbers, machinists and Mr. Joe Citzen have come in and said, "I've looked everywhere for this tool... and thank goodness I've found it!"

Yes, it makes us quite proud that we are still able to serve so many of our friends. If you need any kind of a tool—come in—it's ten to one we've got it!

UNCLE SAM SETS POINT VALUES

But SAFeway SETS CASH PRICES!

While point values are set by law, we still determine our CASH prices. They are never over "ceiling," of course, but often well below it.

It's a good old-fashioned custom to compare prices. And as important today as ever. Check ours now—you'll find them consistently low.
